RE: Letter of Recommendation for Mr. Ken Quinn

To Whom It May Concern:

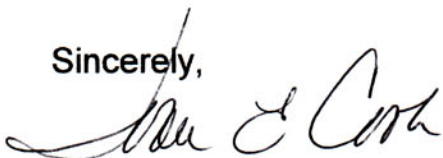

I was the Chief Executive Officer of Lewis and Clark 200, while Ken Quinn served as our Marketing Director, and I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for him. Ken Quinn worked under my supervision for Lewis and Clark 200 from August 3, 2001, until October 16, 2002. Lewis and Clark 200 was designed to promote the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial and the many tourist attractions along the Lewis and Clark Trail.

Ken was responsible for co-creating the company business plan, preparing the company's marketing strategy, conducting publicity events, acting as the company spokesman to the media, and various other activities to make our website a brand experience. During the course of his employment, he proved to be an outstanding associate, and a creative thinker. He had the rare ability to be both a self-starter as well as a team player, and demonstrated a high degree of knowledge concerning online marketing capabilities.

Ken takes ownership of issues. He has the ability to handle many projects at the same time, and complete them on schedule with professionalism. Ken was instrumental in developing over 7,000 business listings on our site, making it one of the largest websites on the Internet. He also developed an interactive children's trivia game for school promotions, negotiated content sharing, designed advertisements, and explored ways to develop a GPS oriented website for PDAs.

Please contact me if I can be of any assistance.

Sincerely,

Joan E. Cook
